

BY THE
 COMMANDER IN CHIEF OF HIS
 MAJESTIES FORCES
 In SCOTLAND.

 Hereas I have received an Order from His Majesty, for the Apprehending of the Lord Wariston, and securing of his Person in the Castle of Edinburgh, and he being withdrawn, and obscuring of himself, as also making refusal to yeeld Obedience to His Majesties Commands; These are therefore to authorize and impower any Person or Persons whatsoever, in His Majesties Name, to use their utmost endeavours for the Apprehending of the said Lord Wariston, and thereafter him in safe custody to bring to me: For the which Service they shall receive One hundred pounds Scots. And in case any Person or Persons shall harbour or conceale the said Lord Wariston, and not make speedy discovery of him, they will be deemed guilty of Treason, and proceeded against accordingly.

Given under my Hand at Edinburgh, the sixteenth of July, One thousand six hundred and sixty.

Thomas Morgan.
